When a Card Just Isn't Enough

For times in life that require a personal touch: corporate gifts, comfort in a trying time, celebration of a birth, or house-warming gifts.

We even do an Ancient Mediterranean theme basket for those interested in biblical history and healthy foods.

Zacki Murphy, who has an art education degree, is a personal chef and culinary instructor. Her love for styling gift baskets began when she was working for Martha Stewart. She has demonstrated her basket making on Good Morning America, Lifetime TV, and Family Circle Magazine.

"Zacki's gift of a food basket was the best thing I have ever had. It was manna from heaven."
